

The Taos Tour

We have put together an excellent tour of picturesque Taos for participants of the workshop. It includes both spectacular scenic and cultural offerings, including an excellent meal at a landmark New Mexico restaurant in a beautiful country setting. The price includes transportation, meals, and admission to the museums and Taos Pueblo, at considerable savings over what can be done on an individual basis.

Agenda:

12 Noon: Depart Santa Fe Hilton Parking Lot

Proceed to Taos via the high road. This follows a scenic road that winds through many small villages famous for their traditional New Mexican art and craft work.

Box lunches en route: Sandwich, Fresh fruit, Chips, Brownie, Assorted Drinks

Stop at US Hill Overlook -- Picture-taking opportunity

Stop at the Gorge Bridge -- Excellent view of the Rio Grande

Stop at the Millicent Rogers Museum -- A unique collection of art in a lovely setting -- 30 minutes

Stop at the Taos Pueblo -- A tour through the historic and famous pueblo -- one hour

Stop at the Taos Plaza -- 45 Minutes for shopping and sightseeing

Proceed to the Steakout Restaurant for dinner

Menu

Mixed greens with balsamic vinaigrette or
Soup of the Day

Choice of:

Cornmeal Crusted Red Trout Filet Au Citron
Pan Seared Breast of Chicken Florentine with Basil-Champignon Sauce
Applewood Smoked Pork Chops with Brandy-Mustard Sauce
Ravioli Al Porcino

Chocolate-Toasted Almond Mousse
Or Crème Caramel

Return to Santa Fe Hilton -- 8:00 PM

Cost per Person: $89.95 -- payable at registration

This is an excellent and cost-effective way to see some of the unique beauty of northern New Mexico. We urge you to take advantage of this opportunity that is available for workshop participants and guests.